

Hearing on Zone Change Postponed

A final hearing on a petition for a zone change in the WALTERIA area was postponed by the City Council Tuesday evening at the request of the WALTERIA Civic Organization. The hearing will be held at 8 p.m. Nov. 12.

The WALTERIA group, fearful that a zone change on property at Hawthorne Avenue and Newton Street will permit apartment construction, claimed residents of the area were not properly notified of the hearing.

Charles Shurtle, director of planning, said all required notices had been mailed. Councilmen voted, however, to postpone the hearing since the residents beyond the 300 foot radius were concerned about the matter.

In other matters, the council moved through a long, routine agenda, generally approving planning department petitions and variances. Contracts for several street projects, including the improvement of Border Avenue, were awarded to Hadd Contracting Co.

A new ordinance, prohibiting animals which make loud and excessive noises, was adopted on its first reading.

United Artists Theater was given permission to erect an over-area sign along Crenshaw Boulevard after several delays and postponements.

Charles Shurtle, director of planning, said all required notices had been mailed. Councilmen voted, however, to postpone the hearing since the residents beyond the 300 foot radius were concerned about the matter.

The new facility, called Captain Cooks Seafood Steamer, has been designed for steaming all varieties of shellfish; the steamer kettle features a brick facing and a hammered copper hood.

Von's 40 foot stainless steel kitchen will offer, as well as coffee and snack bar facilities to customers, an extensive foods to go service.

Located opposite the new Buffum's Department Store, the market offers parking for more than 200 cars adjacent to the store.
